

Local Libraries of interest

- John Innes Centre, Library and Archives

Preserving and displaying historically significant material from the history of the study of genetics, plant science and microbiology, documenting over 400 years of botanical literature

Members of the public and researchers may access the collections housed in the library by appointment.

Contact:

Email: sarah.wilmot@jic.ac.uk

Phone: 01603 450 670

Website: www.jic.ac.uk/research-impact/scientific-facilities/library-and-archives/

- Kirby Hall Library - Headquarters of the Norfolk Family History Society

The Library contains a large selection of genealogical resources for the family historian including genealogy books, directories, parish register transcripts, monumental inscriptions, family trees & pedigrees, village information and much more.

It is free to the general public and is staffed by volunteers who are happy to assist visitors with their research.

Contact:

Website: <https://www.norfolkfhs.org.uk/library/>

- Norfolk and Norwich Millennium Library

Norwich's main public library has a wide selection of books for you to borrow as well as lots of online resources such as magazines and e-books. Free to join - use your term-time address to register if you don't usually live in Norfolk.

Contact:

Email: libraries@norfolk.gov.uk

Website: <https://www.norfolk.gov.uk/libraries-local-history-and-archives>

- Norwich Cathedral Library

This historic library houses some 8,000 volumes on a range of subjects including theology, literature, local history and travel.

Contact:

Email: library@cathedral.org.uk

Phone: 01603 218 443

Website: <http://www.cathedral.org.uk/learning/library>

- Robert Sainsbury Library

A specialised library in the indigenous arts and material culture of Africa, the Pacific Region and the Americas based at the UEA.

Users from outside the University should introduce themselves at the enquiry/issue desk in order to receive information on the Library, but otherwise no formal registration is required. Users of the SCONUL Access scheme should bring both their SCONUL card and their home library/campus card.

Contact:

Email: sru.library@uea.ac.uk

Phone: 01603 592 659

Website: <http://rsl.uea.ac.uk/library.php>

- The Sir Thomas Browne Library, Norfolk and Norwich Hospital

A multidisciplinary healthcare library.

The library is open to all Trust employees as well as local NHS and social care staff and students.

Contact:

Email: library@nnuh.nhs.uk

Phone: 01603 286 893

Website: <https://nanime.nnuh.nhs.uk/medical-library/about-us/>

- The Cory and Herbarium Library, Cambridge University Botanic Garden

Home to the Garden's printed collections. It houses around 7,000 books and over 50 periodical titles both historic and current.

The main library is accessible by appointment only.

Contact:

Email: cory@lib.cam.ac.uk

Website: <https://bio.lib.cam.ac.uk/cory-and-herbarium-libraries>