Black Atlantic: Power, People, Resistance	Fitzwilliam Museum Cambridge		Trumpington Street, Cambridge, CB2 1RB	https://www.fitzmuseum.cam.ac.uk/plan-your-visit/exhibitions/black-atlantic-power-people-resistance	8/09/2023 to 7/01/2024	Which stories get remembered, and why? This exhibition explores some new stories from history – stories that help us to separate fact from fiction and history from myth. By bringing together collections from across the University of Cambridge’s museums, libraries and colleges with loans from around the world, Black Atlantic: Power, People, Resistance asks new questions about Cambridge’s role in the transatlantic slave trade and looks at how objects and artworks have influenced history and perspectives.
THE MISSING THREAD	Somerset House		Somerset House, Strand, London, WC2R 1LA	https://www.somerset-house.org.uk/whats-on/the-missing-thread?gad=1&gclid=EAlaQobChMltDvtaXXgQMVLux3Ch3nQQf4EAYASAAEgJRavD_BwE	21 Sep 2023 - 07 Jan 2024	This autumn, Somerset House explores the stories of Black British fashion in a major new exhibition, The Missing Thread, curated by the Black Orientated Legacy Development Agency (BOLD). Spanning from the 1970s to the present day, The Missing Thread charts the shifting landscape of Black British culture and the unique contribution it has made to Britain’s rich design history.

Poulomi Basu: Fireflies	Norwich University of Arts, east gallery	Candice	Candice Allison <c.allison@nu.ac.uk>		3 October - 18 November 2023	Presented in partnership with Autograph, Indian artist and activist Poulomi Basu’s powerful exhibition Fireflies foregrounds the relationship between mother and daughter. Using photography, video and sound, Basu reflects on experiences of trauma – particularly patriarchal violence – navigating the claustrophobia of home, dreams of freedom, defiance, and transcendence.
Mannington Book Bash: Lemn Sissay	Mannington Hall, Norwich NR11 7BB		contact@thebookhive.co.uk or phone 01603 219268	https://www.blackhistorymonth.org.uk/article/listings/region/norfolk/mannington-book-bash-lemn-sissay/	Fri, 6 Oct 2023 20:00 – 21:30 BST	His voice — both on and off the page — is known to millions. His recent radio series Lemn Sissay is The One and Only and Lemn Sissay’s Social Enterprise have both been runaway hits. His brand new poetry collection — Let The Light Pour In — will be published the week before his appearance here. Lemn will be delivering a talk about the process of writing his latest work (composed over a decade!) as well as performing some poems. He’ll take questions from the audience and will be happy to sign books.
Mannington Book Bash: David Olusoga	Mannington Hall, Norwich NR11 7BB		contact@thebookhive.co.uk or phone 01603 219268	https://www.blackhistorymonth.org.uk/article/listings/region/norfolk/mannington-book-bash-david-olusoga/	Sunday 8th October	David Olusoga’s books and TV shows have continued a vital tradition of telling the truth about our relationship with slavery and how its appalling legacy helped build the prosperous country we now live in — and brought the conversation to a far wider audience. His work gives us the chance to reflect on a history that belongs to all of us who call ourselves British today. His new book Black History for Everyday of the Year will have just been published when he comes to Mannington. David will be delivering a lecture on the themes of his new work, taking questions from the audience, and signing books.
